

ALLES GAIN AT SOUCHEZ PARIS SAYS

FRENCH REPORT OF GAINS DENIED BY BERLIN, WHICH CLAIMS NEW OFFENSIVE HAS FAILED.

CROWN PRINCE LOSES

French Army Batters Down Defenses at East End of Line Threatening Verdun and Lorraine.

Paris, Sept. 28.—The new offensive movement of the allies has resulted in further gains in the Artois region near Souchez, the war office announced today. Additional progress is reported in Champagne.

The German counter attack on the Argonne is said to have been repulsed. The Germans left the ground before the trenches covered with dead. The Germans are offering desperate resistance to the allies. The positions to which they have retreated are protected by a system of barbed wire entanglements.

Claim Attack Has Failed.

Berlin, wireless to Sayville, Sept. 28.—"The general attack of the French and British along the western front is considered to have failed already," says the Overseas News Agency. There is no possibility that the German lines will break through the German lines in view of the length of the front, which is 810 miles.

"It is to be expected that the Germans have suffered losses, but the figure of the 20,000 prisoners given by the French and British is believed to be exaggerated. At all events the attack has now failed, since the German front is being held firmly everywhere."

British Hold Ground.

London, Sept. 28.—The French are now battering the second line of German defenses in Champagne while the British, to the north, apparently have been able to crush all German counter attacks. So far as can be ascertained, the situation on the western front, as created by the allied offensive of Saturday and Sunday, is about as it was at the end of the day.

The British are now attacking the German Crown Prince in the Argonne at some places reached the first French line, but nowhere did the Germans break through.

While German prisoners are arriving in France by the railroad, British wounded from Flanders are beginning to reach London. All have the same story to tell. They describe the terrible bombardment of the allies, before which it seemed impossible that anyone could survive, and then the sudden slackening of the fire and the British charge.

How it happened that so many unwounded Germans were captured is puzzling the public of this country and France.

Sir John French's Birthday.

This is the 63rd birthday of Field Marshal Sir John French. The people of the British Empire are celebrating his birthday by sending him a telegram marked "fresh advance so soon after such already achieved, but these accomplishments have called forth particularly cordial congratulations from the British commander in chief."

The fighting in the east still favors the Russians on the southern end of the line, although there is no confirmation of the report that they have reached the important railway junction of Kovel.

The most momentous struggle is still centered on Dvinsk, where it is said the Germans are regrouping their forces preparatory to another great blow.

Bulgaria, though she has mobilized her troops, has not made her next move any clearer.

Crown Prince's Army Shattered.

Paris, Sept. 28.—Intelligence from the front indicates that the German army which reached Paris today shows it was the right of the German Crown Prince's army which was shattered in the attacks of Friday and Saturday. The German Crown Prince's army was shattered in the attacks of Friday and Saturday. The German Crown Prince's army was shattered in the attacks of Friday and Saturday.

WHERE ALLIES MAKE BIG GAINS IN WEST

In their tremendous western offensive the allies have pierced the German positions in Champagne on a front of more than fifteen miles to a depth ranging from two-thirds of a mile to two miles and a quarter; have occupied Hill No. 70, only a mile north of Lens, the heart of the mining section of northern France and threaten to outflank the Germans there; have occupied the entire village of Souchez, north of Arras and have broken the German front on both sides of La Bassée canal for a width of five miles.

HOLD YALE STUDENT FOR DRIVER'S DEATH

Son of Chicago Manufacturer Held Criminally Responsible for Death of a Chauffeur.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 28.—Thomas Donnelly, son of the president of the large manufacturing concern at Forest Hill, who came to New Haven to enter the Freshman class at the Sheffield Scientific School, was held criminally responsible for the death of a chauffeur, an automobile chauffeur of this city by Coroner Eli Mix today.

Crow was injured when a high power car, owned and driven by Donnelly was wrecked on the state highway in Orange on September 17. Four others beside Donnelly and Crow were in the car, but the latter was the only one fatally injured.

The coroner in his findings, says that the machine which was capable of a speed of about eighty-five miles an hour, was taken out for a demonstration by Donnelly and that Crow was invited to be a passenger.

The accident occurred when Donnelly tried to squeeze his car between a vehicle ahead and a fence close to the highway. Donnelly and Crow were killed.

STILL PROBE CASE OF MUELLER DEATHS

Milwaukee, Sept. 28.—District Attorney James Kelly, who is in charge of the Green Lake county, on reaching Milwaukee today, declared every possible effort will be made to run the murder case of Colonel Robert W. Mueller and wife to earth. At the same time, the chairman of the county board offered a reward of $200 for the apprehension of the criminal or criminals.

A remarkable way, drawn by Colonel Mueller four years ago, and giving specific instructions as to the disposition of his affairs, in case he and his wife should meet sudden death at the same time, indicates that he then feared such an attack as was made Friday night at his summer home on the shores of Puchaw Lake, when he and Mrs. Mueller were shot and their bodies burned in their shack.

Colonel Mueller, at that time said he had in mind the possibility of the death of himself and wife in a railroad accident.

LOYAL MEN AND WOMEN.

There is nothing that is so significant in the development of any community as the loyal men and women who sacrifice personal interests for the betterment of others. During the past few days there has been a campaign in the interests of the Young Men's Christian Association. The best citizens of Janesville are enlisted in its cause and it will be surprising if the results do not demonstrate that the city is awake to the fact that it has an association in its midst that is working for the best interests of the entire community. For years the Janesville Y. M. C. A. has occupied an enviable position in the city. The new directors mean to make its influence even more widespread than before and with this in view they have started the crusade for new members. Nor are they alone in the work. The ladies of the city are organized to aid in the great work of re-organization and in consequence we may expect results. In this world our women have played an important part. Their counsel and judgment is wise and necessary to make successful many an undertaking and if the present crusade is fruitful we may possibly expect a second one later on waged by the women with the men as their co-operators, to organize a Young Women's Christian Association, a much-needed adjunct to the city. It is the loyal men and women of any city that rally to the call for betterment that accomplish the results and it is to be hoped that the present crusade will show such progress that the ladies will be encouraged to go ahead with their project of Y. W. C. A. in the immediate future. Meanwhile put your shoulder to the wheel and help the organization that has been given new life and needs every loyal citizen as a member.

STREET LIGHTING.

The question of the lighting of the city's streets is one that needs careful attention and deliberation. The council has signified their intention of installing a new system but they wish to be certain what system is the best. They ask for an open discussion of the question and to aid in the deliberations they have invited Mr. Sweet, an electrical engineer of prominence, who now has under consideration the expenditure of something over a million dollars for the corporation of the city of Milwaukee to better their system in vogue in the business district, to give a free lecture at the city hall Friday evening. It is a question that is of interest to every taxpayer and citizen and it is hoped that there will be a full attendance at the meeting Friday to listen to what Mr. Sweet has to say and witness his picture display of what he considers the Utopian idea of street lighting. Of course Janesville has not a million, or a tenth part of it to expend in its improvements, but still if it is going to spend any money of the taxpayers at all the members of the city administration mean that it will be spent with the best results possible to obtain. It is a civic matter. A question of pride for the whole community, and the action of the council in inviting Mr. Sweet here can not be overlooked, and the opportunity of carefully studying the problem for each individual should not be overlooked.

WHO DRIVES?

Less than a week ago the press dispatches announced that the Germans were preparing for a "drive." Then came reports of victories in Russia and the retreat of the Czar Nicholas and his hosts. Sunday saw the news that the English and French had begun their "drive" and the Germans had been driven back—well, some yards at least, according to dispatches from their former positions in Belgium and France. The question is, who is driving? Is it a problem of which dispatches are correct. If we counted all the dead and wounded reported on both sides since the war began a year and some months ago, there would be no fighting men left in Europe today. If we measured the number captured there would be no soldiers left at the front to fight for they would be guarding the prisoners. Some way or other one becomes confused when it comes to answering the question, "Who Drives?"

THE BALKAN CLOUDS.

Always the stormy Petrel of Europe the Balkan states are again a serious problem. With Serbia in open support of the allies, Greece and Rumania promising aid, and Bulgaria calling its reserves into the field, ostensibly for the Teutonic combat, the question remains unanswered. The Balkan states which should be bound together by the bond of unity as the weaker nations of Europe are in open discord and the answer can only be found in the final outcome of the struggle that is changing the map of Europe so quickly, that even the map-makers can not keep pace with the movement of the armies or the historians with the result of the battles fought.

Stock raisers are bemoaning the fact that the recent rains have spoiled their fall marsh feeding places and they are now forced to begin their winter feeding months before they expected. Well, one can not have everything even if you do live on a farm and are master of all you survey.

It is going to be pretty hard for Senator La Follette to go out and criticize the Philipp administration with any hope of finding hearers who will believe that his "tax-eating" friends in the senate did not block many a bit of legislation that would have been of great benefit to the taxpayers of the state.

Well, there is one comfort, the county fairs are about over and thus far none of them have bettered the record set by the Janesville fair as regards stock exhibits or a good race card. While the local fair was early in the season it had the cream of the exhibits.

President Wilson continues on the even tenor of his way. He still goes up to Princeton to vote at the Jersey primaries just as though he was a common citizen. For goodness sake, why comment on it at all. It is perfectly proper for even a president to retain his right of franchise.

Well, the question as to whether or not buildings will again be erected on the south side of the Milwaukee street bridge is up again for consideration. It will be interesting to note how the city fathers look at the matter.

Rock river may be high, but just the same this community is much better off than Galveston was after its recent storm, so why complain about what nature provides.

Mexico does not seem to be any better off now than it was when the "watchful waiting" policy was first inaugurated. In fact the people are starving now and they were not when the present administration refused to listen to its secret agents sent down there to investigate.

Texas does not need to increase its force of rangers as long as the millionaire ranchman can shoot as straight and as quickly as did the one whose ranch was attacked by bandits recently. Just issue a few more rounds of ammunition and let it go at that.

With the Seaman's bill before the public the railroads may expect a rest at the coming Wisconsin campaign, when La Follette finally decides to take the stump in his own behalf.

The Daily Novelette

How They Write 'Em.
With a smothered oath the great novelist threw away his cigarette and dashed water on the blaze in his front bangs, that falling in graceful profusion over his face had been ignited. Quickly recovering his composure he resumed his dictation.

"—and turned pale with fear!"
"But interrupted the precocious young lady stenographer with an aluminum wrist watch, "the hero is a swarthy Spaniard."

"Make him a Norwegian then, con found it, shouted the novelist, pinning back his bangs with a tortoise shell hair-pin, and lighting a fresh cigarette.

"Yes, but the scenes are all laid in Cuba, remember!"
"Lay 'em over again! Transplant 'em! Put 'em in Norway, and let it go, at that!"

"But your hero was never in Norway, at least not that I ever heard of, and your story's all about him!"
"He—oh, d-d-d— I'll swear in a minute! Throw him out and make it about Captain Peary!"

"Oh, but how can you? The plot plot deals with gorillas, jungles, yellow fever, and—"

"XXXXXXXXX!!! —!!! Make it about milkmaids, spinning wheels, first, second, and third prizes for the like woman!" screamed the great novelist, tearing out large bunches from his singed bangs, "I am going to have the hero turn pale with fear and all the other things I've said! Dash it, women, I'm no common everyday writer. My literature is going to be different. I don't give a cent for sacred traditions. No, sir! Get ready to proceed!"

BITTER PROHIBITION FIGHT IN MINNEAPOLIS.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 28.—With four factions involving thousands of prominent men, a bitter bloodless battle is being waged here today, to elect Minneapolis dry at the election October 4. Over the prominence of the men involved and the bitterness of the fight, there are few features.

Leagues and the Anti-Saloon league. On the neutral side of the fence are the Business men's league, headed by State Senator E. J. Westlake, and composed of prominent business men, many of whom are hotel men and property affected by saloons, and the labor unions.

The neutral factions have been waging the "show me fight." They have claimed to be merely attempting to ascertain public opinion. However, they, too, employed a publicity agent.

ONLY ONE NAME.

(By a New Wisconsin Poet.)
We have no war, we want no war;
No feud of hate with king or czar;
We have no choice of race or clan—
We only know the race of man.
From east to west, from sea to sea,
This is the land of liberty.
British or German we know them not,
Nor all of Europe's polygynist.
We have one foe, and only one;
For all that dwell beneath the sun,
We have one name for every man—
And only one—American!

One foe there is within our gates,
A foe that withers and grows and hates.
He hides behind his pride of blood,
He spurns our gift of brotherhood.
We have no choice of race or clan—
His treason now is known to all.
French and Russian we know them not;
We love them not, we hate them not.
We have no choice for every man—
And only one—American!

In the nation's press, in the banquet hall,
Too oft have we heard the hyphen's call:
With poisoned words that slay and cut
The flag is trampled underfoot.
They deal the death of Kaiser and czar,
They plot and plan with the god of war;
For the hate of the hyphen is hate
With a hate that is hard to understand.
Hate of the land that made them free—
Hate of the flag of liberty.
The cry of Europe we know them not;
We love them not, we hate them not.
We know one name for every man—
And only one—American!

CAPTURED SUBJECTS ANNOY GERMANS WITH THEIR JOKES.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Brussels, Sept. 28.—Practical jokes continue to annoy the German authorities, who have considerable difficulty in putting down this form of insult to the invaders by the Belgian populace.

Machinists, who were released by the Germans on the roof of the Palais de Justice in order to command the Minimes and Marolles districts, where the rougher elements live, immediately, as they went on, thought, the people of the neighborhood mounted imitation guns made of stovepipe on their house tops, so that the whole district seemed to bristle with artillery.

Governor-General von Bissing made the jokers pay for their fun, however, at the rate of 15 marks for each offense. The official announcement of the fine accused the jokers of "insulting a method of railway which could only be disastrous to the excellent relations existing between the civil population and the authorities."

ELECTRIC LAMPS COST STATE $10,000 ANNUALLY.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., Sept. 28.—Contracts to furnish electric lights for the state capital, university and nearly all of the state institutions will be awarded this afternoon. The lamps are being tested by the capital electricians and government officials today. Under former contracts the state has purchased upwards of $10,000 worth of electric lights annually.

RECENT GRADUATES TEACH IN MANY DISTANT STATES.

Eighteen states outside of Wisconsin have employed teachers from among the 187 University of Wisconsin graduates of the class of 1915 who secured teaching positions during the summer. These include states as far west as Washington and California, and as far east as North Carolina and Pennsylvania. One man secured a position as instructor in physics in the University of Philadelphia at Philadelphia. The majority of positions secured, however, were in Wisconsin.

Over two-thirds of the teachers are women.

Instructors for the regular academic subjects—English, history, foreign languages, science and mathematics—were in greatest demand. Educational subjects claimed a larger number. The popularity of agriculture as

STATE LABORATORY WILL HELP CHECK DIPHTHERIA.

Epidemics of diphtheria which so often mark the opening weeks of school may be avoided by a little forethought, and a small amount of work, according to Dr. W. D. Stovall, director of the state laboratory of hygiene.

"Every child in school should be examined immediately after enrollment," said Dr. Stovall, "and a culture should be taken for each child's throat by the district physician, school nurse, or in smaller communities, by the family physician. In this way carriers of the disease may be discovered and separated from the other children. No child should be permitted to mingle with others in school until two successive negative cultures have been taken."

Cultures may be taken anywhere in the state and sent to the state laboratory at Madison, where they will be promptly analyzed. A report will then be made to the physician who sent them.

Epidemics of typhoid fever may be prevented in the same way through a required report of all children who have suffered from the disease during the summer vacation. The tests at the state laboratory will show the pupils who should be withdrawn from school.

E. G. Hudson, Chamber, Ga., writes: "Last year I bought and tried Foley Cathartic Tablets. It's a perfect cathartic, with no bad effects. Everybody suffers occasionally from indigestion or constipation, so Mr. Hudson's experience is worth remembering. Stout persons say these tablets relieve that "heavy" feeling.—W. T. Sherer.

POLICE DRY RECORD
BROKEN LAST NIGHT

Ten Arrests Made Last Night—Two

Fights Between 11 and 12

O'clock Stopped.

There was a general "clean-up" by the police department last night. A week without an arrest for drunkenness proved too good to be true and last night ten were hauled into the station for fighting too freely with "demon rum" or for being too free with their fists in drunken brawls.

The patrolman on the Academy street beat last night brought in a number of men during the evening for wear-soon after the closing hour.

One fight occurred on North Main street near the fire station in which with a well-known trio from the gas house district. "Red" up a farm hand named Fred Ketchum, a sides getting the beating. Ketchum was the only one mixed in the affair that was arrested. It appears that Ketchum became involved in a verbal argument with a "barkeep" and at the closing hour awaited the saloon man something that happened in the saloon. The fight that followed was against heavy odds and Ketchum was made a subject to punches, jabbing and a few other means of human punishment that soon had him shrieking for aid. When the police came he was taken in a hack to the station with his face bleeding in spurts from a badly cut under his eye. One optic was brightly red and Ketchum certainly had all his ambitions to fight taken out of him. When arranged in court, Ketchum pleaded guilty to being drunk and guilty and after attempting to explain the trouble in the saloon, was given a sentence of twenty days.

William Hession was in a saloon last night and ventured to show a singer about the entertaining mysteries of the celebrated game of "chummy." During his coming the farmer in the game with the saloon man won a hand and immediately there was a quarrel. Hession was the victim of it and was jailed. In court first pleaded not guilty, then changed his plea when prospects of staying in jail until October fifth loomed up before him. He was given ten days or fifteen days. He took the fifteen days on knowing he could obtain work under the commitment law.

A new gang of workmen came into

Janesville last night, and all of them came from prohibition territory in northern Illinois. Coming into Janesville with a few dollars proved too much for several of them and they landed in jail for the night. Edward

O'Brien, of Harvard, put up the plea relieved of his debt, amounting to about eight dollars. This morning the police learned that he had been drinking heavily and it was not until he was arrested that he was so it is deduced that the robbery was a vision of a liquor-soaked mind, as he only had seven dollars when he came as the contracting firm was in need of his services.

E. Pierce pleaded guilty to being intoxicated this morning and was fined five dollars and costs, which was paid.

William Curry pleaded guilty and was given fifteen days in default of a ten-dollar fine.

Frederick Jay Hymer last night came across one "cold" and he leaning against the door on Academy street sound asleep. This was the first time known in police circles that he was sleeping on the street.

The perpendicular street revived the man enough so that he could safely make his way home.

SIDE TALKS

TO TELL, OR NOT TO TELL.

If you had picked up a stunningly remarkable bargain and someone told you to tell the admiring what a bargain it was or let her think you had paid the full price for it?

A neighbor of mine has a sister who is always picking up remarkable bargains. "But what good does it do her?" says my neighbor. "She never lets people think the things were really expensive. Just as soon as anyone admires anything she tells what a bargain it was."

"Of course," says the sister. "What would be the fun in getting a bargain if I didn't tell about it?"

A Question of Fun or Appearance?

"Fun!" sniffs the other. "It isn't a question of fun, it's a question of appearance."

To quote one of the jingles with which my mother used to oil the waters, "And both were wrong and both were right and both were very impolite."

I have often heard this matter discussed and it seems to me it is like all such questions, simply a matter of the point of view.

It's Just a Question of What You Want Most.

I'm just a question of what you want, what impression you care most to give, an impression that you have more money than you actually possess or that you have cleverness enough to make a good appearance with little means.

If you want most of all to look expensive, of course you won't confess that you watched that seventy-five dollar suit until it was marked down to fifty and finally to thirty-five dollars; that you winnowed those smart looking shoes from an "Odd Sizes for Two Dollars" counter; and that you got that clever little blouse for a song because there was an ink spot on it and got rid of the ink spot by inserting a lace medallion from an old evening gown.

If you are more proud of your brains you'll tell.

If, on the other hand, you are proud of your ability to produce a pleasing effect out of little you will enjoy sharing the secret of your contrivings with your friends.

Personally it always seemed to me more praiseworthy and more satisfying to play a poor hand of cards up to its full value than an excellent hand mediocre well. So perhaps you can guess on which side of the fence I stand.

But I don't believe in too promiscuous confidences on this subject any more than on any other. The people who go about continually proclaiming how little their clothes cost are in just as bad taste and just as great bores as those who insist on letting you know how much they paid for everything they have on.

HEALTH TALKS

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

AT THE FIRST ENCOUNTER.

It is strange how fickle the memory of the first time invalid. Especially if he has been a pretty healthy fellow up till now. His ancestors all seem to have died of old age or infancy—at least they never had what you could really call a disease of any kind, if you know what we mean. No use bothering about that—what the patient wants is a little something for this stomach trouble.

It is a good ideal for one contemplating a consultation with the doctor to read his Bible over the night before—the page where the family pedigree is kept. And then a sort of examination of conscience might not be a bad plan either. Get your past sins and illnesses consequent thereto arranged in good order so you will be ready to give the doctor a fair history, neither exaggerating your various felonies nor belittling the penalties you have paid for them.

This is the most difficult problem a doctor has to contend with in general private practice, obtaining a plain and accurate history. Some of the most important past events as typhoid fever, pneumonia, appendicitis and mania a potu, to mention only the mentionable, utterly escape the memory of the new patient unless the doctor firmly but gently recalls them to view.

People little realize how very important a clear history is in the matter of diagnosis and sometimes in the treatment. Think what a calamity it would be for a patient to develop a sudden colic in the right lower quadrant, have his appendix removed in a great hurry and then, when it was all over, but doctor's bill, to remember that his former occupation had been that of a carriage painter—to learn that the colic was only lead colic after all! Not at all a fanciful episode. Quite a possible occurrence, in fact. A mere error of deduction based upon incomplete data.

While it matters less and less these days, as science marches ever onward, just what one's parents and grandparents and other relatives had died of, it still does matter tremendously what one's own past habits, occupation, environment and illness may have been. Only by an intelligent review of these data can the doctor arrive at sound conclusions, and so the diagnosis and treatment rests partly upon the patient's shoulders.

Too many illnesses grow in duration faster than time itself. At the first encounter the patient has been sick a month or two; at the second, a week later, it seems to have been about six months since the first trouble started; and then in another week or so it comes out that he has really been complaining for two years about that stomach.

"Gray Eyes" Out of Tune.

A very touching letter has come in asking our advice upon a serious question, and we would gladly give advice, only the letter is signed thus: "Sincerely, Gray Eyes."

Sincerely and anonymity are incompatible. We never notice unsigned communications.

Household Hints

CANDIES.

"Fudgy Fudge"—Four cups powdered sugar, one cup sweet milk, one tablespoon cocoa, one teaspoon butter, flavoring.

Stir sugar and milk until dissolved. Mix in the cocoa, put on to cook; when hot, stir in the butter. Boil until little bit hardens in cold water; remove from stove, flavor with vanilla or anything you like, then stir it all up until thick. Pour it on buttered plates to get cold.

CANNING AND PRESERVING.

To Prepare Clingstone Peaches—Everyone knows clingstones are the best flavored and excellent for canning. Wash and dry them. Take a sharp knife and cut crosswise through to the stone. Then, with hands, twist; one side comes off clean. Then, with small gas pliers, pull stone out. Wipe the peach for paring and canning, boil up the stones with enough water for juice.

which gives a good flavor to fruit.

Peach Marmalade—Eighteen can peaches pared and cut in small pieces; one-half lemon, grate and use juice, one orange ground fine and use one cup of sugar for every cup of peaches (equal). Cook slowly until golden color. Put in glasses and when cold cover with paraffin.

THE TABLE.

Italian Baked Meringue—Take one pint of milk, sweeten to taste, add a teaspoon of cocoa or melted chocolate (more if desired); to this add one-half teaspoon of blanched and chopped almonds. Set on stove and let come to a boil, soon as it comes to a boil add three tablespoons cornstarch dissolved in a little cold water. Keep stirring till it thickens (to prevent burning). Pour on a platter while hot and let cool. When cold and firm serve as you would gelatin.

Egg Plant Stuffed with Nuts—Boil egg plant till tender, then cut into halves, scoop out inside, chop it fine, and add following mixture. A cup of chopped hard walnuts or hickory-nuts, a tablespoon of bread crumbs, two well beaten eggs, salt and pepper, mix well, fill shell, bake until brown.

Yellow Cake—One and one-half cups sugar, one and one-half cups butter, three eggs, one cup cold water, three teaspoons baking powder, three cups sifted flour, cream sugar and butter together, then add yolks of eggs, now one cup cold water, but baking powder in flour and add. Last add well beaten whites.

Iceing—Two cups brown sugar, one cup water, boil until forms soft ball, pour in water, stir slowly into well beaten whites of two eggs.

Green Tomato Pie—Take medium sized tomatoes, pare and cut out the stem end, having your pie pan lined with paste made as biscuit dough, slice tomatoes very thin filling pan somewhat heaping. Then grate over it a nutmeg, put in half a cup of butter and a cup of sugar. Sprinkle a small handful of flour over all, pouring in half a cup of vinegar, dough, add a little salt. Bake half an hour in moderately hot oven.

Stuffed Tomatoes a la Carolina—Select a dozen round tomatoes of the same size. Remove a piece about an inch in diameter from the blossom end of each and take out the seeds. Cook a cup of rice in a quart of well-seasoned broth, with half a green pepper cut in fine pieces. When rice is tender add four tablespoons of butter and mix thoroughly, but carefully, to avoid breaking the grains of rice; put back the covers, set in a baking dish, steam for five minutes.

Nasturtium Salad—Prepare a bowl of boiled potatoes as for ordinary potato salad. Mix with them, in a bowl previously well rubbed with an onion, tender nasturtium seeds, little dice of cucumber and strands of sweet green peppers. Salt the whole well. Make a dressing of cream, salt, white pepper and lemon juice stirred together. Mix with the potatoes and place the salad on a platter garnished with nasturtium leaves and blossoms.

Apple Cinnamon Peanut Butter Crust—Stir together one pint four, two teaspoons baking powder, one-fourth teaspoon salt. Rub in lightly one-half cup of peanut butter, then moisten with ice water as for pie crust; roll out and cut in large squares; lay on each square one pared and cored apple over which sugar and cinnamon have been sprinkled. Wet edges of crust and press together over the apple. Bake as usual.

Lemon Pie—One cup milk, one cup sugar, two eggs, one lemon and two teaspoons flour. Put milk in pan and stir in sugar. Beat yolks, add lemon juice, one teaspoon sugar and two teaspoons flour. Beat this all together and stir into the hot milk. Cook until thick. Have pie crust ready (baked), pour in the hot custard, spread the meringue and brown in hot oven.

For crust take one cup sifted flour, one tablespoon butter and one of egg mixed with spoon and add enough water to hold together; add little salt if desired.

Glimpses of Married Life

By MRS. EVA LEONARD

"Oh, I've the best joke on your mother, Olive," said Dr. Elison.

"A joke?" Well, we might as well get the most fun possible out of it for you may be sure we shall enjoy it along."

"You're right there. When I lifted the case of what I was surprised to find it was a light, I set it down and took the lid off the box. It had been opened and the cover was only set on. There were the dozen bottles but they were all empty."

The doctor put back his head and laughed till the tears came.

"Empty? I fail to see how you could get into the fun."

Why, your poor troubled woman found that case of beer as she probably called it, and supposed I had ordered it for my private consumption. She thought it was the brandy and to destruction and before she left she did what she could to save me, she emptied all the stuff out. I suppose she could not get her courage up to say anything about it. Again the doctor shook with mirth.

"Oh, she must know of her mistake. It will relieve her to know you did not order it for your private consumption."

Perhaps she will see that joke," said Olive. "I will tell daddy and he will have lots of fun over it."

"I have it!" exclaimed the doctor in great excitement. "Write it up for me explaining the situation, and telling him that I think she must have drunk it, for she was the only

ENLIST WOMEN'S AID TO GET NEW MEMBERS

AUXILIARY ORGANIZED

More Than Fifty Women Attend Mass Meeting Monday Afternoon—Mrs. John Cunningham, President.

Janesville women will be enlisted in the Y. M. C. A. membership campaign which opens next Monday and it is expected that their services will be of great value in swelling the enrollment materially. The membership proposition was but one of a number of important matters considered at the mass meeting of women held at the association building Monday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a ladies' auxiliary, but it will be one of the first important functions which the new society will take up.

There were more than fifty women at the meeting yesterday, which was called to order by F. S. Baines, president of the Y. M. C. A. board of directors. Mr. Baines outlined the purpose of the organization of an auxiliary, explaining that there were a great many important matters which could be looked after more efficiently by the women. Along this line he pointed out the improvement and redecoration of the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. dormitory, the supervision of banquets and suppers, and assistance in social gatherings and receptions, in all of which the auxiliary could give valuable suggestions and assistance.

Officers for the auxiliary were elected as follows: Mrs. John Cunningham, president; Mrs. George A. Janes, vice-president; Mrs. O. E. O'Brien, secretary; and Mrs. S. M. Smith, treasurer. The following were appointed chairmen of the standing committees: Mrs. E. C. Bailey, house committee; Mrs. J. A. Craig, mothers' committee; and Mrs. Louise Bowerman, social committee. The chairmen of these committees and the four officers will compose the executive committee which will meet shortly to name the other committee members and further outline the work.

Heart and Home Problems

Letters May Be Addressed To Mrs. Thompson, in Care of The Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I would appreciate your view on my situation. I am twenty, and our parents dislike it very much if we even have a fellow call once a week. If once a week for a date would be the limit, they would not be so bad, but they also expect that we come home by ten o'clock, and we must be by ten-thirty. Only in extreme cases, such as parties, are we admitted after ten o'clock. Even if we stay at home and have a gentleman friend call on us, the folks will even allow them to stay past ten-thirty. If they seem inclined to, they will kindly remind them of their rules and regulations. I have time upon time lately been called to bed, or my friend has been called to go home. It makes me as well as my friend feel most dreadfully embarrassed. I have lost many a night's sleep over the fact and cried until it almost seemed my heart would break. I have kindly pleaded with my folks to allow them to stay until eleven o'clock. That hour I would gladly tell them was my limit, but at ten o'clock, especially when there were young couples, the time goes so quickly and we are usually in the midst of some fun when I either by telephone or directly am told to come home. I wish you would write what your honest opinion is, and write it heavy in blue and white so that I may show my parents.

JANE.

My dear little girl, you are blessed to have such wise parents. While the majority of girls are allowed to go out as many nights a week as they have a chance and to stay as late as they want to, you are forced to lead a sane life, one that will serve your health and youth. Help your parents in what they are doing. When it is ten o'clock or ten-thirty and your waiters home, or if you are at a friend's house, return at once. It will save a great deal of embarrassment to follow rules voluntarily and will please your parents. If they see that you are willing to do what they think best, they will want to do more to please you and without doubt the nights when you are especially favored will come more often.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am soon to be married. Would a pink gown trimmed in green be suitable? If not, what color?

(2) Are four or six bridesmaids best?

(3) Is it best to have a best man?

(4) I am to be married at the church. How should it be decorated?

(5) Would green silk stockings be all right with pink?

(6) What is the ring ceremony?

(7) Should you wear your engagement ring to the wedding?

(8) What is an expensive menu for a wedding supper?

GERTIE.

(1) Brides usually wear white. Pink trimmed in green would not be as dainty as white and so I would not advise you to have it.

(2) Two, four or six are all right. It depends upon the number you want.

(3) Yes.

(4) Leave that to a florist. He will know what can be done for the money you want to put into it.

(5) I think pink would be better if you are going to wear pink. You seem a little uncertain about your color scheme. Pink and green could be used together with very good results, if the costume were suggested by an artist, but if one were not absolutely sure of the effect, the result

BOSTON HOLDS PACE WITH DETROIT TEAM

Two More Victories or Two Detroit Defeats or Split Would Insure Pennant for Boston.

Games played Monday in the American league were all favorable to the league leaders as the Boston Red Sox closed their season on the home grounds defeated St. Louis by the score of 8 to 4 while the Detroit Tigers were running away with Washington, 7 to 5. Two more Boston wins or two more defeats to the Tigers or a Red Sox victory in Detroit would decide the race for the Boston club.

Old members of the championship Athletic team enabled the White Sox to defeat their old teammates at Philadelphia by the score of 5 to 3. This was the parting shot of the Sox against the Mackmen for they have defeated them every game at the Philadelphia park this year. Six games separates Washington and the White Sox, in third place and Comiskey's pennant misers have clinched third berth.

In the National the big doings yesterday was the escape of the Cubs from the cellar as they defeated Cincinnati in a double header and took the lead by pulling out of the hole by half a game.

Pitchers Win Two. Chicago, Sept. 28.—Having served three days in the dungeon of the cellar of the National league, the Cubs stepped out over the Giants by belting the Cincinnati Reds in a double header yesterday by the scores of 7 to 2 and 5 to 0. Fortune smiled on the two Cub hurlers for despite the winter weather and sloppy diamonds, Lavender hurled great ball in the opener and Humphries subdued the Reds easily in the second game.

There is a hope for the Cubs to land fourth place in the waning pennant race as the Pirates who are now in the more elevating berth are but a full game ahead of the Cubs. Pirates have won sixteen and a half games from the top. Another double header will be staged today.

Sox Nose Out Win. Philadelphia, Sept. 28.—The White Sox would be undisputed league champions if they could play the Athletics all the time for they have hung crepe on the Mackmen in every game played here this season. Monday Jim Scott hurled the Sox to a victory over the ex-champs and Jackson clinched the game with a turpentine win in a critical moment. The Sox won 8 and 2. Scott became careless in the ninth inning and filled the sacks with two walks and allowing a duke single. Seaborg walked forcing in a run and three runs were scored.

Can Hit Ball. Boston, Sept. 27.—The Red Sox, closing the season on their home grounds with an 8 to 4 victory over St. Louis today, approached within two games of setting their claim to the championship.

The Browns found Leonard off form and took the lead with three runs in the second inning, assisted by Lewis' error. Boston scored two in the third on a pass, Scott's double and Gainer's hit and tied the score in the fourth. Through Sister's wildness and Wagner's double, St. Louis again took the lead in the fifth inning, when Sister and Shotton singled. Howard was hit and Sister scored on Lee's sacrifice fly. Boston won the contest in the seventh by timely hitting and by taking advantage of the wildness of both Sister and Wellman. Shore, who replaced Leonard in the sixth for Boston, pitched almost perfect ball.

Ty Was Asleep. Washington, Sept. 28.—Ty Cobb stole third with the base occupied by Eustace in today's game, which Detroit won from Washington, 7 to 3. Seeing his mistake the Georgia star made a desperate dash back to second and when Empire Wallace called him out on a close decision he objected so strenuously that he was put out of the game.

Washington scored four runs in the first inning, but Detroit made three in the third and went ahead by adding three more in the fourth.

BAUMANN'S COLTS WIN FROM PARKER PEN. Baumann's Colts added another scalp to their belt last night when they defeated the Parker Pen team at the Miller's alley. AD WOLGAST LOSES ON FOUL TO BOBBY WAUGH. [SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Shreveport, La., Sept. 27.—Bobby Waugh of Fort Worth, lightweight, was given the decision on a foul Monday night in the sixth round of a scheduled fifteen round bout over Ad Wolgast, former lightweight champion. Up to the sixth round Waugh had the best of the fight. The question of a foul was decided by a physician, who was called into the ring when Waugh fell to the floor.

RED SOX TRY OUT ON BRAVES' FIELD

Take Advantage of Open Date to Test Out Light and Shadows on Boston National's Park.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Boston, Sept. 28.—Although this was an open date in major league schedules for Boston teams, the day was an active one in baseball circles. The Red Sox, virtually certain pennant winners in the American league, were busy in preparation for the world's series in which they expect to meet the Philadelphia Nationals.

As the local games will be played on the Braves' field, to which the Red Sox are strangers, Manager Carrigan ordered his players out to test its light and shadows, said to be unusual, by trying because of the great sweep of stands, to study the bound of balls from the new laid paths and turf and to judge the flight of balls with respect to the great distances of the most extensive playing field in the country.

On the same held the world's champion Braves kept a trim for the coming of the Philadelphia Nationals tomorrow for a four game series. Captain Evers said his teammates still have hopes of pulling the National league leaders down to a point within reach of another Brave success.

An augmented staff of clerks in the offices of the Boston American, led steadily at a growing pile of applications for world series tickets.

Sport Snap Shots MORRIS MILLER John McGraw proposes to reorganize his Giants before next season. The astute leader realizes he must make many changes before he can harbor any hope of making his team a real contender in the race.

The one thing McGraw will have to accomplish is to find a real successor for Christy Mathewson. It would seem that the majority of the New York team for the past fourteen years has reached the end of his career. He cannot longer perform with the consistency of yore, and there is no getting away from the fact that Mathewson, more than any other three players McGraw ever had, made it possible for him to win pennants. Matty may be able to pitch now and then in 1911, but McGraw no longer can depend on "Big Six" to carry the pitching burden of his team.

Sam Mayer will be returned by Washington to the Kansas City American association club. Before Griffith signed Mayer he had to agree to pay George Tebeau, the owner of the Kansas City club, $2,500 by October 1, or he kept Mayer. After looking Mayer over in six or seven games Griffith concluded he was not worth this amount of money and "The Fighting Hope," Belasco's former stage hit was the vehicle for Laura Hope Crews' debut into picture plays, at the Apollo yesterday.

The combination of a stage success and a popular stage star packed the Apollo early. Miss Crews gave an excellent interpretation of the character of the wife who trusts her husband until the proof of his crime becomes overwhelming. She has established herself solidly and will be welcomed in her future film appearances.

Other members who commend themselves to particular attention are Theodore Roberts, as usual; Thomas Meighan, who was the brawny stevedore in "Kindling"; and Billy Elmer of the fascinating ugliness. GAMES ON WEDNESDAY. American League. Chicago at Cleveland.
Washington at Philadelphia.
National League. Cincinnati at Chicago.

Fred Clarke's successor at Pittsburgh will be asked to clean house according to report. Several old-time favorites will be traded or released. Max Carey is one of the stars who has been in disesteem and will be shunted elsewhere. About the only two regulars, aside from Hans Wagner, of course, who are sure of their jobs are the two ex-Clevelanders Doc Johnston and Hinchman. The tip is that Hans will be made manager.

AD WOLGAST LOSES ON FOUL TO BOBBY WAUGH. [SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Shreveport, La., Sept. 27.—Bobby Waugh of Fort Worth, lightweight, was given the decision on a foul Monday night in the sixth round of a scheduled fifteen round bout over Ad Wolgast, former lightweight champion. Up to the sixth round Waugh had the best of the fight. The question of a foul was decided by a physician, who was called into the ring when Waugh fell to the floor.

Except for a weakness for d. Dave Addams seems to be a very superior woman. Th other side of th road alius looks smooth.

Incidentally, "The Fixer" marks the advent of Bickel and Watson into the picture. The broad humor that made the musician and the tramp in Ziegfeld's early "follies" so famous, is very much in evidence in "The Fixer." It is a happy story, full of smiles and chuckles, without the slightest suggestion of vulgarity in any of its five delightful parts.

Amusements

(Notices furnished by the theatres.)

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Ruth Stonehouse Plays School Girl in "Temper," Tomorrow.

Miss Ruth Stonehouse fits into the little school-girl seats as well now as she did when she was a child. In "Temper," the Essanay film which features Henry B. Walthall, Miss Stonehouse assumed a position among a group of thirty children in a school-room scene. "It is funny," she remarked afterwards, "how eager these children are to sit in the school room here and yet they would wear the longest of faces if they were forced to go back to a real school."

Mr. Walthall's part is one that gives him full opportunity to display the mastery of human emotions that has brought him to first rank as a photoplayer. To see this remarkable three-act subject is to realize the full artistry of the man.

AT MYERS THEATRE.

Hailed as "something different" in comedy, George Kleine's latest feature, "The Fixer," starring the funniest of funny comedians, Bickel and Watson, has been selected as the chief attraction at the Myers Theatre next Wednesday, Sept. 29, matinee and evening.

"The Fixer" is founded on Willis M. Goodhue's famous stage farce "Hello Bill" and is said to be as unusual and distinctive in its way as this producer's "Quo Vadis" when it was introduced nearly three years ago. In addition to featuring the funny pair who did so much toward establishing Ziegfeld's early "follies" shows, the entire production is characterized by a lavishness of setting and minute attention to detail as beautiful as it is unusual in comedy productions.

"The Fixer" is a real story with a logical plot and the supporting cast is the best that Broadway offers. Two decided innovations that will do much toward stamping "The Fixer" a new kind of comedy. The ordinary tumble-about, slap-stick, farce, devoid of story and dependent solely upon the antics of an individual are missing in this latest Kleine product.

AT THE APOLLO.

"The Spendthrift," Tonight. Mattie Ferguson, who plays the thrifty, practical millionaire aunt in George Kleine's film version of Porter Emerson Browne's drama, "The Spendthrift," which is shown at the Apollo theatre today, was a delighted group of thirty children in a school-room scene. "It is funny," she remarked afterwards, "how eager these children are to sit in the school room here and yet they would wear the longest of faces if they were forced to go back to a real school."

Mr. Walthall's part is one that gives him full opportunity to display the mastery of human emotions that has brought him to first rank as a photoplayer. To see this remarkable three-act subject is to realize the full artistry of the man.

Miss Ferguson had every reason to enjoy watching herself on the screen for her finished portrayal of this quaint personality is one of the clearest pieces of character work in the picture.

AT THE APOLLO.

Lenore Ulrich in "Kilmory." The Oliver Morosco Photoplay company will present on Wednesday at the Apollo a fascinating love idyl of present day egyptians entitled "Kilmory." A little white child grows up among these romantic wanderers only to return to her social station when she falls in love with a dashing young chap from one of the embassies. Lenore Ulrich, who took the country by storm the last two seasons in "The Bird of Paradise," stars in the role of "Kilmory," this being her first appearance upon the screen.

WHEN a fellow wants tobacco satisfaction and finds how he can get it, it's natural for him to put the other fellows next to the Real Tobacco Chew, because a little chew satisfies. Tobacco satisfaction is what he is looking for—the smaller the chew it takes, the better it suits him.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough—cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

ASK YOUR DEALER FOR W-B CUT CHEWING TOBACCO. IT IS THE NEW REAL TOBACCO CHEW CUT LONG SHRED.

Take less than one-quarter the old size chew. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just take a nibble of it until you find the strength chew that suits you, then see how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up. An excess of licorice and sweetening makes you spit too much. One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

(Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste.) WEYMAN-BRUTON COMPANY, 50 Union Square, New York City

MILITARY DRILL IS ESSENTIAL FEATURE

George W. Ehler, C. E., Professor and Director of Physical Education, University of Wisconsin.

Forward. The writer was a member of a boys' military company at the age of thirteen. He was a cadet, drilling daily, for three years and an instructor for one year at the Pennsylvania Military college. For three summers he has been a boys' military company, Lake Chautauqua Assembly. For five years he has served the University of Wisconsin where military drill is required twice a week of all male students for two years.

"Be Prepared," the Scout watchword, should become the watchword of the nation. The extreme pacifists, that "Preparedness" means the development of the spirit of aggression and leads directly to war, is as false as the idea that the boy who learns to box and wrestle or to play football thereby becomes inevitably a braggart and a bully; and the converse, that "Unpreparedness," national "out of condition," will be a protection against the bully, is equally fallacious. In the warfare of the evil upon the good there is no consideration given upon the basis of sex, age or physical condition. The bully fears and avoids the man of real power. He dominates and terrorizes the weak.

Influential and prominent advocates of preparedness, carried away by their feelings, influenced by the superficial and concrete, propose to introduce military drill into all public schools and colleges as the chief means for preparing growing boys and girls for possible future military service. Almost without exception they back up the suggestion with the argument that such drill will also be valuable as physical education. By military drill these advocates mean infantry drill tactics—marching and the manual of arms. These are essentials in the school of the soldier but they are only of minor importance. They can be thoroughly learned for all practical military purposes, by any bright boy strong enough to handle a toy gun, in less than a month. From the standpoint of physical education, their value on the one hand is not only negligible, for the same physical results that are of any value at all can be secured in better ways; but on the other hand, the manual of arms, combined with the relatively long periods of holding the rifle in one position while waiting at company or regimental evolutions, tend to be injurious to the growing and developing boy.

Military "drill" is a sound deadening, enthusiasm killing, contempt developing treadmill. It is worse than gymnastic "drill." Preparedness marching should be but for the method for large bodies of people of going to and from work in the most expeditious manner with the least confusion and delay. The manual of arms is only a method of shifting the rifle from one uncomfortable position to another except for certain ceremonial movements.

Preparedness involves on the one hand material things—arms, munitions, fortifications and all that they imply. On the other hand, and of infinitely greater importance, is the "man behind the gun." Preparedness on his part involves the acquisition of military technique, the art and science of the soldier—eventually, but primarily and fundamentally of war. Greater significance, the possession of vitality, endurance, integrity of structure and function of every organ, the efficient control of the body, the fullest development of the physical, mental and emotional powers, the result of real physical education.

The thing of military preparedness in these times, therefore, without doubt military training should begin with the beginning of school life. Let us not confound drill with training. The substitution of military drill for physical education, let us profit by the example of other nations and peoples who in similar but not less varied times as well as in our own day realized that the matter of breeding and training throughout the growing and developing period—childhood and adolescence.

In the curriculum of primitive man physical education went hand in hand with vocational training. Skill of body, strength, fearlessness, courage, endurance, were the definite objects of systematic methods of education. Father and grandfather were the boy's teachers and from his earliest years constant attention was paid to running, jumping, swimming, riding, wrestling, and shooting. Together with "hardening" practices including daily bathing in cold water, sleeping without shelter, going without food.

Among the Athenians in the golden age of Greece, nearly half the time of the boy in school from his sixth to his eighteenth year was given to various forms of physical activity with the definite aim of physical education—running, leaping, wrestling, boxing, driving, riding, throwing, shooting, fencing. Not until his eighteenth year was he required to begin military drill and learn military technique and two years sufficed to make a warrior of him.

In our day, little Switzerland has learned the lesson of having her entire male population trained to a high degree of physical efficiency, fit as warriors, yet without militarism and without in any way detracting from or interfering with the course of elementary, secondary, or higher education or turning her schools and universities into military academies.

Education is compulsory up to fifteen and systematic physical training forms a large part of the curriculum in all schools from the beginning. From eleven to sixteen a boy may join a volunteer cadet corps in which the chief activity is shooting at a target with a real rifle. From sixteen to twenty he may join a volunteer military organization in which the chief emphasis is placed upon gymnastics and shooting. At twenty he must take his examination for the medical, literary, gymnastic, running. The unit are rejected and he must pay a special tax.

The inadequacy of "military drill" as a means of physical education is emphasized by the example of West Point and Annapolis where systems of physical exercise of a most vigorous sort are required of all cadets throughout their four years of training.

SWEDEN'S STOPPING EXPORTING OF FOOD HITS GERMANY HARD

Sweden Has Been a Food Supply to the Germany Since War Started—New Law Made to Protect Sweden.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Stockholm, Sweden, Sept. 28.—The action of the Swedish government in prohibiting the export of all meat, canned goods and live stock, which became operative last week, means the practical loss to Germany of Sweden as a source of food supply. Certain minor exceptions will exist, the most important of which is fish; and pork and bacon can still be exported under special licenses, but the order is as absolute and inflexible as possible under the circumstances and Sweden's export of trade in food is for the time being, and probably as long as the war lasts, almost completely at an end.

Although it has been common knowledge that German has been substantially helped by Sweden in the matter of food, the extent of this help has only been revealed by fragmentary figures which are now available. The prohibitory order has been for a long time delayed by a desire expressed by the government to first count the amount of stock on hand in Sweden, to determine whether it had actually fallen low enough to make the prohibition imperative. The results of this investigation are startling.

Amount Exported.
During the first half of the war 162,000 cattle have been exported, practically the whole stock going to Germany. This is fully a 200 per cent increase over the ordinary export before the war which was only 81,000. The time 500,000 hogs, alive or slaughtered, have been sent out of Sweden to foreign markets, although in this case a large percentage has gone to England. The counting of stock showed that whereas Sweden was expected to have for home consumption 1,400,000 hogs, she now has on hand less than half that number. The alarming scarcity of provisions shown by the investigation, together with the popular outcry against the high prices which actually placed the common necessities of life beyond the reach of the poor consumer, resulted in the order prohibiting further export. It is thought that this order will soon be extended to all food.

Soon after the outbreak of the war, thousands of German buyers swarmed into Sweden, who did what they could, even in the smallest villages, to buy up all available meat and vegetables. They organized and with special central offices, they bought, canned and exported to Germany.

Protected Self.
At Landskrona and Malmo, factories were built and no detail was omitted in the systematic attempt to make the export as high as possible. A temporary step taken by the Swedish government last January forbidding the export of all tinned goods allowed Sweden a short respite from a system which was draining her of supplies which were necessary for home consumption. But by various dodges, and principally by exporting the same amount of meat in form of live stock or slaughtered cattle, the export soon reached its former height. Swedish dealers were encouraged to continue this excessive and disastrous export by the enormous prices which were offered by the Germans. Food prices began to mount daily and with alarming bounds until it was evident that a continuance of exports would lead to the actual starvation of Sweden.

The actual starvation of Sweden, the scarcity and the almost prohibitive prices placed upon articles of food which always have been regarded as the simple necessities of life, have caused already suffering among the poorer classes.

In addition to the prohibition of exports, food commissioners are already fixing maximum prices on the ordinary food commodities. Milk, which has been selling for six cents a liter, has already fallen to five cents, at the instructions of the commission, and a maximum price of six dollars and a quarter per hundred pounds of wheat has been set by the government, to last until the fifth of October.

To Reduce Price.
It is thought that the prohibition of exports, and the reduction of prices made by the commission will effectively reduce the speculative prices which now prevail, but to further help in this matter and to do away with the middleman, and agent's commission, the government has established a food bureau, with branch offices all over the country, to buy all available supplies and sell them direct to consumer without profit. This will undoubtedly be of material assistance in the effort to send prices downward.

Pork today is 45 cents per kilo. A year ago it was 45 cents. Butter now 80 cents, a year ago 50 cents. Eggs now fifty cents for twenty, year ago twenty-five cents. Beef now seventy-five cents, formerly thirty cents. It appears from this increase of 100 per cent that food prices are at present higher in Sweden than in any country in Europe.

NEW COUNTRY PALACE FOR CROWN PRINCE DONE.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Berlin, Sept. 28.—The splendid country residence for the Crown Prince on the Jungferns, a broad arm of the Havel at Potsdam, has now been completed in the rough and will be ready for occupancy by next spring. The erection of the palace was rendered necessary, it is explained, by reason of the increase in the Prince's family. The Emperor supplied the money for building it, and others for the furniture and property of the Crown, to become the residence of future Crown Princes.

The palace is really a group of buildings centering upon not less than five courts and covering about 12,000 square yards. There are apartments for the Crown Prince himself, then for the Crown Princess and children; others for the officials of his court, and still others for the servants. Not less than four approaches for vehicles will be made—one for members of the royal family, which leads into the court of honor, a second for guests and the court officials, a third for the children of the royal couple, and a fourth for trades people and servants. The buildings will be surrounded by spacious grounds, partly terraced, there will be two so-called rose gardens, and these, as well as the rest of the establishment, will give beautiful views over the Havel lakes. The building will be a modern one, with simple outlines, with high roofs covered with red tiles. The palace will be just a good modern house, with an abundance of room and with modern comforts which are rare in the older palaces of Germany. There will be, for example, not less than twenty bath rooms.

WAR HAS ROBBED SCIENTIFIC WORLD OF INDUSTRIAL INVENTIONS.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Manchester, England, Sept. 28.—Professor Arthur Schuster, a man with a German name and born and educated in Germany, presided at the annual meeting here of the British Association, a society that includes in its membership all of the distinguished men of science in Great Britain. He won the presidency of this distinguished body against an agitation by a part of the press. But as Professor Schuster is of Jewish blood, his family were once Prussian subjects and his father was a naturalized Briton, the agitation did not stir up the lay public to any extent, and his brother scientists considered him entitled to the honor.

In a recent interview, Professor Schuster said that if the present war ended in a stalemate militarism would be fixed on all of Europe and science would be turned from its legitimate aims for the invention of new engines of destruction. He believed the drawing of scientists into political and military work proved an evil for Germany. This drew the best minds away from pure research. While Germany excelled in working out the practical ends of science, the scientific revolution in science did not originate in that country.

"If the war ends in such a way as to encourage the nations to believe that they will sooner or later be at war again," he said, "materialistic aims, I am afraid, will overshadow the idealistic aspects of science."
